is later. The further procedure for review is as follows: A copy of the petition is forthwith transmitted to the Office by the clerk of the court and thereupon the Office files in the court the record in the proceeding, as provided in section 2112 of title 28 of the U.S. Code. Upon the filing of the petition, the court has jurisdiction, which upon the filing of the record is exclusive, to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part, the final action of the Office. Review of such proceedings is had as provided in chapter 7 of title 5 of the U.S. Code. The judgment and decree of the court is final, except that they are subject to review by the Supreme Court upon certiorari as provided in section 1254 of title 28 of the U.S. Code.

(v) Post-conversion reports. The applicant shall file such post-conversion reports concerning its conversion as the Office may require.

§ 563b.9 Conversion of a savings association in connection with the formation of a holding company.

A savings association may convert to the stock form pursuant to this subpart A as part of a transaction in which a holding company is organized to acquire upon issuance all the capital stock of the converted savings association. In such a transaction eligible account holders, supplemental eligible account holders, and voting members of the converting savings association shall receive, without payment, non-transferable rights under § 563b.3(c)(2), (c)(4), and (c)(5) of this part to purchase capital stock of the newly-formed holding company in lieu of capital stock of the converting association. Unless clearly inapplicable, all of the requirements of this subpart A shall apply to a conversion under this section.

§ 563b.10 Conversion of a savings association through merger with an existing holding company or stock savings association.

A savings association that qualifies for a voluntary supervisory conversion under subpart C of this part may convert to stock form by merging with an existing holding company or interim Federal or state chartered stock association in a transaction in which stock of the existing holding company or resulting association is issued.

§ 563b.11 Convenience and needs considerations.

In reviewing an application under this subpart, the Office will examine the extent to which the conversion will affect the convenience and needs of the communities to be served by the converted savings association. The Office will review the applicant's record under part 563e of this chapter. In addition, the Office will scrutinize the business plan of the applicant. Each applicant must demonstrate that the proposed deployment of proceeds contained in its business plan will help meet the credit and lending needs of the communities served by the applicant. Also, the Office will consider other relevant factors relating to the association's performance in meeting the convenience and needs of the community. Based on an assessment of the applicant's record under part 563e of this chapter, the applicant's business plan and other relevant factors, the Office may approve the application, deny the application, or approve the application on the condition that the applicant improve certain aspects of its CRA performance record or address particular credit or lending needs of the communities that it serves.
